The Word gave the command to create on the second day in the beginning.

He separated the waters from the waters, enclosing them by land.

In this way he set the earthly world apart from the fiery ones.

With them, O children of light, give praise to the triple Light.

O companies of many-eyed Cherubim; and of the Seraphim who sing the Thrice Holy,

O thrones of the uncreated divinity of the consubstantial Trinity,

Intercede with the Lord.

St. Nersess Armenian Seminary 2011
Give praise to the triple Light.

Supreme authorities and eternally immutable dominions; invincible holy powers, glorification in the Creator,

Appeal to the merciful Lord not to neglect the work of his hands.

With them, O children of light, give praise for the children of the Church.
O choirs of bodiless powers, archangels on high,

fiery spirits and servants,

armies of angels;

Entreat the Lord of lords

for people on Earth.

With them, O children of light, give praise

The supernal choirs of heavenly beings, and the vigilant angels singing praise;
Let the voice of their acclamations for us be sweet to you, compassionate One.

So that you may protect us from this day to the end.

With them, O children of light,

give praise to the triple Light.

The hosts and dominions; the authorities and powers,

and all those names in heaven;

Through their supplications, O Christ, receive us in joy on the day of our death and resurrection,

so that with them, we may praise you in Spirit,

glorifying you with the Father.