

ST. NERSESS ARMENIAN SEMINARY

150 Stratton Road • New Rochelle, NY • (914) 636-2003 • info@stnersess.edu

R E N E W I N G T H E F A I T H

The Conservator's Role In Restoring Armenian Manuscripts

Friday, March 25 • 7:30 PM

Tamara Ohanyan

Senior Book Conservator Library of Congress

Tamara Ohanyan, a native of Yerevan, Armenia, is a graduate of the Pedagogical State University of Yerevan (Arts Department). She has worked as a book conservator at the Matenadaran National Manuscript Archives in Yerevan and the New Julfa Armenian Monastic Library in Isfahan, Iran. She has exhibited her work in Armenia, Canada and the U.S. Ms. Ohanyan will illustrate her lecture with a live demonstration of the Armenian art of book binding and manuscript creation and restoration.

The Armenian Patriarchate of Jerusalem: Today and Tomorrow

Thursday, April 7 • 7:30 PM

Archbishop Vicken Aykazian

*Ecumenical Director, Eastern Diocese Armenian Church
Past President, National Council of Churches in the USA*

Abp. Vicken Aykazian is a member of the monastic brotherhood of Sts. James in Jerusalem. He has served the Armenian Church in Europe, Armenia and the United States in a variety of pastoral, administrative, charitable, and especially ecumenical ministries. He currently serves as the Legate of the Eastern Diocese of the Armenian Church in Washington, DC. From these diverse vantage points, His Eminence will discuss the role of the Armenian Church in Jerusalem in the coming years.

