The Gift of Armenian Sacramental Theology and Liturgy to the Wider Church

Rev. Dr. Maxwell Johnson

Professor of Liturgical Studies

University of Notre Dame

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 2009

7:30PM

Is the Armenian Church's rich liturgical and theological tradition for Armenians only? Or does it have relevance for the world at large? Professor Maxwell Johnson is a Lutheran Pastor and one of the world's leading authorities on the origins and development of early Christian Liturgy and the history and theology of baptism. He will reflect on the significance of the Armenian theological heritage and liturgical traditions and their ecumenical significance. The lecture is free and open to the public. A reception will follow. For more information: www.stnersess.edu • info@stnersess.edu • (914) 636-2003.
